The Nationals easily defeated the Baltimore club at Capitol park yesterday by a score of 6 to 2 in eight innings. The home team earned five runs and left no doubt in the minds of those present that they were the superiors of the visitors in every point of the game. Burch and White excelled at the bat for the Nationals, and Powell pitched a splendid game. Cook, who caught at first, was unable to hold him, and exchanged places with Baker, who caught with his old-time skill. Gladmon's fielding at third was unusually good. No one finds fault with the manner in which he has covered the third bag this year. This afternoon the fault with the manner in which he has covered the third bag this year. This afternoon the home boys meet the New York giants.

The second game of the series between the Chicagos and the St. Louis Americans at St. Louis yesterday broke up in a row in the sixth inning, the score standing 5 to 4 in favor of the Chicagos. The umpiring was very unsatisfactory to the home team, and when a ball which struck outside the foul line, but rolled inside before it reached first, had been declared foul, and then given safe, letting in a run, Comiskey called his men off the field. Sullivan, the umpire, made no decision of the game on the grounds, but gave it to Chicago last night at the hotel, by a score of 9 to 0. The Browns claim the decision will not stand, as it should have been made on the grounds.

In Philadelphia yesterday the first game of the fall series between the Philadelphia League club and the American Athletics was won handily by the latter by a score of 7 to 2. Mathews' pitching for the Athletics was the feature of the game.

THREE MEN IN FEMALE ATTIRE.—This morning, about 3 o'clock, a herdic containing some very noisy passengers was driven up the Avenue as far as 15th street, and was returning by the same route when Officer Weedon had the carriage driven to the 5th precinct station, and found three well known colored men attired in female apparel. They gave their names as Andrew Green, Wm. H. Johnson and Wm. Glies, and they were locked up on charge of disorderly conduct. Green was attired in a blue satin dress and a pink jersey, with a shawl thrown across his shoulders. Giles, who is very tall, wore a mother hubbard dress, with a white dress under it. Johnson wore a red dress, with a white patent leather slippers, and a blue fascinator over his head. This morning, in the Police Court, they were charged with disorderly conduct, but the judge advised a charge of vagrancy to be filed, and gave them 90 days in default of bonds.

At Her Baby's Grave. A PATHETIC SCENE IN A COURT-BOOM AT CHICAGO. In Chicago during the hearing of a divorce case before Judge Garner a very affecting incident occurred. Mrs. Frieda Bartmann, the complainant, was on the stand. Martin Bartmann, the defendant, is an engraver with the Western Bank-Note company. In the midst of a tale of cruel treatment on the part of the husband that individual leaned over and whispered to his counsel. The lawyer straightened up with a look of importance and remarked: "Your husband says that upon one occasion you came home at ten o'clock at night with torn dress and disheveled hair; that you told him upon that occasion that you had been at the cemetery. How about that? How about that?"

The witness dropped her eyes to the floor to hide her tears.
"How about that?" again asked the attorney.
With a glance at the judge she began her reply. "My boy, the only one we ever had," she said, "had been dead a year that day. It was late in the evening when he died—I remember it well—and when that hour came I was at his grave in Graceland, kneeling. He was my only son, judge, and I lingued longers then I thought arranging the flowers. longer than I thought, arranging the flowers. When I got up the big gate was closed. I shouted, but no one could hear, I suppose, for no one came. I saw a passing expressman through the wicket and halled him. With his help I clambered over the wall. That is how my dress came to be torn," and she looked at the judge through her tears. "This case stands adjourned until to-morrow," said his honor, as he turned to conceal his agitation. The attorney who asked the question and the husband who prompted it could not hide their confusion and quickly left the room.

The Armed Strength of Europe. A well-informed correspondent, who is said to be officially connected with the German general staff, has during the last two months contributed to the Berliner Tageblatt a series of articles on the armed strength of Europe. In the event of war the disciplined soldiers that could event of war the disciplined soldiers that could within three months be sent into the field by these countriess may be numbered as follows: Roumania, 102,000; Servia, 73,000; Bulgaria, 72,000; Greece, 61,000; Eastern Roumelia, 25,000; Montenegro, 24,000; Turkey, 284,000. The same authority estimates that the maximum available strength of the great powers for warlike operations in European Turkey within three months of the outbreak of hostilities would be: Russia, 810,000; Germany, 430,000; France, 320,000; Austria-Hungary, 320,000; Italy, 207,000, and Great Britian, 80,000. JOHN MCCULLOUGH NEARING THE END.—

The Anthracite Coal Trade.

There is an active trade going on in anthra cite at all points and so far as demand is concerned no cause for complaint exists and we see no immediate signs of a cessation from this pleasant condition of business. The domestic sizes are most in demand, as a matter of course, but as these sizes now far outweigh those used in any other line of consumption it means that the whole trade may be set down as active.

If I had the books and papers here I could make a statement to prove the faisity of very much that has been published. I haven't them and cannot get them and shall not attempt to speak from memory."

CAPTURED BY ELECTRICITY.—A broken elec-tric light wire at State and Harrison streets, tric light wire at State and Harrison streets, Chicago, became connected Wednesday night with an iron pillar. This passed the electric current along a hand railing, and it, returning by another railing, made a complete circuit. A negro came along and leaned wearily against the railing. Then he bristled up with energy. His arms were closed around the railing and his body was bent like a letter S. He had no idea what was the matter with him, and being unable to let go his hold, cried out loudly that he was dying. A dozen men ran to his assistance and were soon experiencing the tingling effect of the electricity. Some laughed, others cried and many called for help. A crowd soon gathered and a few additional victims were hanging to the railing. Finally the crowd numbered nearly 500. Cars were stopped and no one could get past. A police wagon arrived just as an enterprising man had discovered the cause of the trouble and released the victims by disconnecting the wire. The police dispersed the crowd, everybody laughed and no one was arrested.

NELLIE GRANTS UNHAPPINESS. Determined to Bear with Her Unworthy Husband for Her Children's

Sr. Louis, October 16 .- A dispatch from Galena, Ill., says: The story of the alleged estrange ment between Neilie Grant-Sartoris and her husband, Algernon, is believed by friends of the family here; indeed, there are one or two persons in Galena who claim to have received intimation from Mrs. Grant that her daughter's matrimonial lot was an unhappy one. Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris have virtually lived apart during the past five years, the latter having passed most of the time very quietly with her children in Germany and Italy, while her husband has been roaming about from place to place, with no settled habitation. The reported escapade of Sartoris, a few years ago, when he came over to this country to look after some of his father's property at Green Bay, and about which the papers had a great deal to say at the time, is known here to have disgusted the general and his wife with their son-in-law, and made a breech between Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris that nothing can heal. It is thought, however, that Neilie has gone back to England with a determination to faithfully perform her duties as a ment between Nellie Grant-Sartoris and her mination to faithfully perform ber duties as a wife and mother, as she always has done, and that she will make no effort to secure the custody of her children with the view to bringing them to the United States and separating them permanently from their father.

Apaches Active in Mexico. EL PASO, TEX., October 16.-News has been received here from San Jose, a station on the Mexican Central railway about ninety miles south of El Paso, that twenty-eight of the Apaches have passed through the Sabinal district, the newly discovered bonanza section of the Sierra Madre. The Indians are moving about in large numbers in the Corralitos mountains, but so far without doing any damage.

Another Youthful Desperado. HANNIBAL, Mo., October 16 .- Parker Smith, colored youth, has been arrested here on the charge of robbery. He went to the residence of an old colored woman near Hydesburg and, commanding her to hold up her hands, ran-sacked the house, obtaining $22 in money. The Effective Texan Way. HEMPSTEAD, TEX., October 16 .- Wednesday night a mob burned the slaughter houses and pens, with their contents, belonging to George

Burton and John Ness. After this the mob came to town, awoke Burton and Ness, and gave them five days to leave the town and fifteen days to leave the county. The men were told that there had been too many stolen beeves butchered at their pens, and the inten-tion was to ston it. tion was to stop it. To Blow Himself Up With Dynamite. Hot Springs, Ark., October 16 .- Advices from the Bear mountain mining camp, west of here, state that L. E. Gore, an old miner, at tempted to cut his throat with a razor. He narrowly missed the jugular, and perceiving his failure procured ten sticks of dynamite, placing a fuse and cap thereto, and located the same under himself. He was in the act of igniting the fuse when he was discovered. Despondency is assigned as the cause. Tracking the Hostiles. EL PASO, TEX., October 16 .- News comes from Fairview, near Engle, N. M., that fresh Indian trails have been seen going in the direction of Fairview, in the Black range, Means to Starve Himself to Death. Macon, Ga., October 16 .- Dennis Gordon, a prisoner in the county jail, has not tasted food for sixteen days, and expresses his determina-tion to die of starvation. It is thought that he

The Ohio Colony in Missouri. St. Louis, October 16 .- A dispatch from Butler. Mo., says: "Ex-Governor Foster and ex-Speaker Keifer, of Ohio, are expected in this city in a few days, on their way to Walnut and the coal fields, of which they are part owners. Walnut, which started, two years ago, with such a tremendous boom, but which got a back-set, has had a business revival, many eastern people purchasing property and taking up residence there. Seven cars of steel rails for the Walnut road, known as the St. Louis and Emproved by the partition of the large them. poria, have arrived at this point, and the long expected road is to be completed from Butler to Walnut and Pleaston. The name of Walnut City has been changed to Foster, in honor of the ex-governor. Restless Little Indians. MANY RECENT DESERTIONS FROM THE INDIAN

SCHOOL AT LAWRENCE. LAWRENCE, KAN., October 16 .- There have been several desertions from the Indian school recently. Col. Grabinski, superintendent, is sues a circular letter requesting the assistance of farmers and others to recapture deserters. He says: "While the discipline of the institution is firm, yet it is of such a nature that but one boy has been seriously punished during the three months I have been in charge, and he for a fight with a companion, and not for cause arising out of the school discipline. The Indian pupils also receive all attention, food, clothing, etc., they surely have at their homes, yet the innate restlessness of the Indian, a dislike of any control, causes desertion from the institu-tion. Few of them take the trains, but the majority strike out across the country, and, having no money, must either get along by begging, or do worse." Establishing Maxwell's Identity. Sr. Louis, October 16 .- Some time ago the circuit attorney sent to Hyde, England, copies of all the letters found in an album in Max. well's trunk when he was captured at Auckland. Two or three days ago a letter was re-ceived from Capt. Lingard, chief of police of Hyde, stating that the pictures had been identi-fied as those of people in and about Hyde, and among them was that of Mary Whittaker, Maxwell's sweetheart at one time. The letter of Capt. Lingard contains a number of important facts upon which the prosecution will work before the case comes to trial. The identification of the photos is but another evidence of the identity of Maxwell, and Brooks, the solicitor.

The Cat and the Cash Boy. ATTACKED AND BADLY INJURED BY A HALF-

STARVED FELINE. Several weeks ago a large cat was locked up in the cellar of a Louisville dry goods store, and has since refused to be released. The animal had been without food and water for so long and had become so ravenous that it was considered dangerous to enter the cellar. No one has gone down for over a week, and it was supposed the cat was dead. A cash boy volunteered to make the attempt Thursday morning. He had scarcely entered the cellar when the clerks heard agonizing screams, and rushing down found the little fellow vainly attempting to free found the little fellow vainly attempting to free himself from the ferocious animal, which had fastened its fangs in his left hand and was lacerating his arms with its claws. The cat was killed after a desperate struggle. The boy's hand was found to be very much injured. The thumb was so badly bitten that it may require emputation

BREAK IN A CANAL BANK.

A disastrous break in the bank of the Schuylkill canal occurred at the six mile level, near memory."

"Have you read Ward's statement?"

"Yes, but I shall say nothing about it to any person. What I think of it is of no importance when about one hundred feet of the bank was swept away, the water rushed out with resist-less fury, flooding the neighboring farms and inundating a number of houses. Some fields were covered with three feet of water. The disaster came in the night, and people had to flee to the top stories to save themselves from flee to the top stories to save themselves from drowning in their homes. All their furniture and provisions were ruined. Several parrow escapes from drowning are reported, and one child's life was saved through the heroic exertions of its brother, who plunged into a flooded apartment and came to the surface with the babe in his arms. Families were kept prisoners without food, fire or drinking water for ten and twelve hours. Navigation is entirely suspended, as the water is out of the canal for many miles. Over forty loaded boats bound for tide water are laid up at Reading. A large number of light boats coming up are lying at Birdsboro. The break will hardly be repaired this week.

THE RESULT OF THE PINCH OF POVERTY.— Louisville, Ky., special to the Philadelphia Press says: At 12 o'clock last evening a police-Press says: At 12 o'clock last evening a policeman was attracted to a store on 4th street, where he found a young man with only one arm standing near a large plate glass that had been broken in the show-window. The young man had smashed the window with a rock, and was standing with his back to the aperture waiting for the officer. "What are you doing here?" demanded the policeman, as he seized hold of the man. "I was hungry, and I thought I would break it and get some of that silver in the show-case. I want a home, and I did it purposely to get into the penitentiary a few years." He was taken to the station house, where he gave his name as Charles Bennington, and his home as Pittsburg. He is about 25 years of age and has an open, honest countenance, a little pinched by want and suffering. Fate has pushed nim to the wall, and he broke the window purposely to keep himself from starvation. The court sent him to the work-house this morning.
